

APPOINTMENT OF MEMBERS TO THE CORNWALL COUNTRYSIDE ACCESS FORUM

Are you interested in access to the countryside in Cornwall?

We are looking for enthusiastic, committed people who can help develop opportunities for public access to the Cornish countryside.

The Cornwall Countryside Access Forum aims to provide advice to Cornwall County Council and other appropriate bodies on how to make the countryside more accessible and enjoyable for open-air recreation, in ways which address social, economic and environmental interests.

Applications are sought for 7 positions on the Cornwall Countryside Access Forum which has 20 Members. You may be a user of footpaths, bridleways and byways, or be a landowner/land manager or have other interests especially relevant to Cornwall. Other interests include, but not exclusively, conservation of the natural and historic environment, tourism, sport and recreation, health, outdoor education, the military and local businesses.

Public meetings of the Forum are generally held every two months on a Tuesday afternoon at various locations around the county.

The appointments will be effective from the Forum's Annual Meeting to be held on Tuesday 21 July 2009.
